Re: Orrstown Bank v. Ares Investment Group, LLC, et al.
Case No.: 1:12-cv-00345-RDB

Dear Clerk:

I represent Plaintiff, Orrstown Bank, in connection with this matter. On February 6, 2012, Orrstown Bank filed its initial Complaint for Confession of Judgment and Breach of Contract. (ECF No. 1). On March 12, 2012, Orrstown Bank filed its First Amended Complaint for Confession of Judgment and Breach of Contract. (ECF No. 21).

It came to our attention this morning, upon reviewing Defendants' motion to vacate filed last night (ECF No. 23), that the Complaint and First Amended Complaint (and some of the exhibits thereto) contain certain personal or confidential information concerning Defendants that was inadvertently not redacted before filing.

Accordingly, I am attaching hereto a redacted First Amended Complaint and a full set of the exhibits, with appropriate redactions made to the exhibits. I understand that, upon the filing of these redacted documents, the Court will restrict public access to ECF Nos. 1 & 21.

Finally, per my discussion this morning with Ms. Holly Lee, I understand that there is no need for Orrstown Bank to file hard copies of the attached redacted documents.

Please feel free to call me if you have any questions. Thank you.

Very truly yours,
